Martin Lewis is Managing Editor of Meetings & Incentive Travel magazine and Managing Director of CAT Publications Ltd, a unique organisation that specialises solely in magazines, directories and a web site portal serving the conference and incentive travel markets.

Martin gained his experience as a journalist in a broad spectrum of positions, as news reporter, court reporter, sports writer, sub editor and news editor, before leaving consumer newspapers to join Travel Trade Gazette as Deputy Editor.

He arrived in the conference business by accident when he joined Conferences & Exhibitions magazine in 1981 and liked the market so much he stayed. With colleagues he launched Meetings & Incentive Travel magazine in 1987 and formed his own company, Conference And Travel (CAT) Publications.

CAT Publications now also publishes Association Meetings International magazine, the Worldwide Convention Centres Directory, www.meetpie.com and organises The Meetings Industry Marketing Awards and The Meetings & Incentive Travel Industry Awards.

In 2005, The Joint Meetings Industry Council (JMIC) presented Martin with the industry's first ever Profile & Power Award for services to the meetings industry.
