

TONY CAREY

After 25 years as a professional meeting planner, Tony Carey, CMM, CMP is now a consultant to the international conference industry, assisting organisations, venues and destinations gain a better return on their conference investment.

A founder of the UK Chapter of Meeting Professionals International (MPI), he has served on the Board of Directors in the USA and was elected a Chancellor of that 20,000 member organisation. Tony has presented educational programmes in over 120 different cities, world-wide, is editor of several professional manuals and has authored two books. He writes a column for four industry magazines and has won two American awards for his writing.

He is an authorised tutor for CMP exam candidates and was editor of the Convention Industry Council's International Manual

He lives on the British island of Guernsey where he has been a freelance presenter with the BBC.
TC. 01/08

Tony Carey can be reached via his website: www.tonycarey.info or by e-mail at: tonycarey@psilink.co.je